Theatrical Experience:

Bring photo/resume. Be prepared to cold-read from the script. BE FAMILIAR WITH THE PLAY.

The Guests: It is important that the gentle residents of "The Cloisters" be played with warmth and dignity. Their "home" is not an "asylum" nor are these good people "lunatics. "Any exaggeration of the roles will rob them of their charm and humor.

- Florence: 30-40; an elegant woman with a gentle disposition. Lost her son at an early age, has never emotionally recovered.
Hannibal: 28-35; sweet, kind, cherubic, math expert. Proud of his talents as a violinist, but he knows only two chords.
Fairy May: 20's; childlike, happy, cheerful nature, witty, delightful, pretty. Desperately seeks love and approval from others.
Jeffrey: 25-33; handsome, dignified, pianist, war veteran. Believes his face is badly scarred, but the scars are strictly mental.
Mrs. Paddy: 45-60; fierce, paints seascapes, badly. Refuses to speak to anyone, except occasionally, to say what she hates.

The Family:

- Ethel: 60-70; wealthy widow, eccentric, with a youthful, mischievous spirit. Clever, quick and imaginative. Has blue hair.
Titus: 40-45; well-dressed senator. Conservative, humorless and direct. Driven by power and wealth. Not close to Ethel.
Samuel: 40; undistinguished judge and man. His siblings overshadow him, and his rulings in court are usually overturned.
Lily Belle: 40-45; attractive, chic, arrogant, selfish and greedy. Has been married six times. Doesn't get along with Ethel.

The Staff:

- Miss Wilhelmina: 25-33; pretty, efficient, ethical, confident, kind, loving. Married to Jeff, but he doesn't remember her.
Dr. Emmett: 50-60; honorable, strong authority figure, treats his patients with care and respect. They are his top priority.
